

Expression of Interest for the Chair of the National Forum for the Enhancement of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education

Expressions of Interest are invited for the position of Chair of the National Forum for the Enhancement of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education. The position is a non-executive role to lead the National Forum into a new phase of its existence. The new Chair is not expected to have an operational role in the organisation and the time commitment to the National Forum is limited to planning and attending Board meetings, as well as occasional evenings and attendance at National Forum events.

Candidates can express their interest by completing an on-line application form. Please note that the application cannot be saved before it is submitted so please have the following information ready:

- Name
- Day time phone number
- E-mail address
- Job title
- Organisation
- A summary of what you think the challenges and opportunities are for teaching and learning in higher education and what you will bring to the role of Chair (500 words or less)
- A short bio (350 words or less)
- Your curriculum vitae

The HEA will establish a selection committee to review the applications and interviews of the two preferred candidates will take place the week of 29th October or 5th November 2018 (date to be finalised). The final recommendation for the role of Chair must be approved by the Board of the National Forum, with final sign off by the Board of the HEA. The attachments include:

- A role specification for the position of Chair of the National Forum
- An overview of the selection process for the Chair of the National Forum
- An on-line Expression of Interest application form.

The deadline for applications will expire on Friday 26th October by close of business.
