

Notice to HEA Suppliers 2024

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”), processors of personal data are required to comply with Article 28 of the GDPR when processing personal data on behalf of data controllers, in this case the HEA.

The HEA would like to emphasise the importance of the following obligations:

- To comply with all terms of the data processing agreement as part of your contract with the HEA,
- to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of the personal data processed on behalf of the HEA,
- to not engage another processor without prior specific or general written authorisation of the controller,
- to not process data outside of the EEA without prior written authorisation from the HEA,
- be able to demonstrate at any point that compliance is being met and where applicable to maintain a record of all processing, including subject matter and duration of the processing, the nature and purposes of the processing, types of personal data and the categories of individuals, being carried out on HEA data,
- to delete or return all the personal data to the HEA after the end of the provision of services.
- To make available to the HEA all information necessary to allow for and contribute to audits conducted by the HEA or on behalf of the HEA.
