Introduction

The HEA and Irish Research Council are committed to protecting the rights and privacy of individuals in accordance with the Data Protection Acts. A Privacy and Data Protection Statement is available on the data protection pages of our website.

Data Protection legislation lay down strict rules about the way in which personal data and sensitive personal data are collected, accessed, used and disclosed. Under Section 91 of the Data Protection Act 2018 and Article 15 of the GDPR individuals are entitled to make a request for access to their personal data.

In certain cases and in accordance with Article 89 GDPR and Section 42 and 54 of the Data Protection Act 2018 certain of these rights may be restricted for statistical purposes.

Purpose of this Procedure

The purpose of this procedure is to ensure that the HEA and IRC complies with the access request provisions of the Data Protection Legislation and to enable individuals to submit Subject Access Requests.

Procedure for making and submitting a Subject Access Request

You can make a subject access request by emailing dataprotection@hea.ie. We may ask you to complete the Subject Access Request form and return it to us in order to help us process your request.

Alternatively, you may write a letter to the Data Protection Office. Your letter should include the following:

Dear…. I wish to make an access request under Section 91 of the Data Protection Act 2018 and Article 15 GDPR for a copy of any information you keep about me, on computer or in manual form in relation to ……….

To help locate your personal data, please include specific details on the forms of contact you require us to locate, i.e. letter, email, telephone contact records etc.

If you wish a Third Party to submit a Subject Access Request on your behalf (e.g. a family member or solicitor), you must complete the Third Party Authorisation form (which can be found on the HEA’s website) to authorise HEA to disclose your personal data to that Third Party.

Identification

If the HEA as data controller has reasonable doubts as to your identity, before proceeding with your request we may ask you to provide additional information.

Right to complain to Data Protection Commissioner

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request, you may make a complaint to the Data Protection Commission who will investigate the matter for you. Further details on your rights under the Data Protection legislation are available on the Data Protection Commissioner’s website www.dataprotection.ie.

Data pertaining to your information only.

You are entitled to your own data only. If data from parties to the application are required by you, it is necessary for each party to consent to the release of their personal data by also completing the Subject Access Request form and submitting this to the HEA’s Data Protection Office.
The HEA will endeavour to respond to your SAR within 30 days as required under GDPR.
