

Higher Education Authority Advisory Group on Anti-Racism in Irish Higher Education Institutions

This Advisory Group has been established to advise the Higher Education Authority on policy relating to addressing racism in Irish higher education institutions (HEIs) and advancing race equality as part of institutional culture and strategic priorities. This includes but is not limited to, the implementation of the Race Equality Report, the Race Equality Implementation Plan in Irish HEIs and the Anti-Racism Principles for Irish HEIs. Current membership of the Advisory Group is as follows:

Megan Berry	Tusla
Dr Nata Duvvury	University of Galway
Dr Lylia Fatabong	Representative of the Athena Swan Practitioner Network Race and Ethnicity Working Group
Gearóid Hodgins	Representative of Technological Universities Association (TUA)
Professor Karl Kitching	Dublin City University
Angeliki Lima	Research Ireland
Dr Helen Maher	Representative of Irish Universities Association (IUA)
Sinéad Mahon	Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science (DFHERIS)
Dr Lucy Michael	Research Expert and Consultant in Equity, Diversity and Inclusion
Professor Lorraine McIlrath	Representative of Smaller and Specialist Colleges
Dr Lilian Nwanze - Akobo	Maynooth University
Karl Ormsby	AMLÉ (Aontas na Mac Léinn in Éirinn)
Dr Philip Owende	Technological University Dublin
Professor Kalpana Shankar	University College Dublin
Dr Jennie Rothwell (Chair)	Higher Education Authority
Laura Austin (Secretariat)	Higher Education Authority